

NEEDLES AND THREAD

April 2021

Barb's Bits and Pieces

Our third zoom meeting is coming up! Jean has worked hard to make sure we have a program and I know we all appreciate her efforts! Again, it was so wonderful to see our members on our last zoom call and hope to see more this time. We are planning our very first in person meeting at a park in May. More details on that coming soon! I'm looking forward to seeing you all in person in May. In the meantime, let's finish up those quilts we made during quarantine so they will be ready for our own quilt show in the fall. I need to do that too!

Guess Who is Opening Up Again?

Missouri Star Quilt Company will be open for shoppers starting May 3, 2021!

We just might have to do a road trip!

Scrap Quilt

We appreciate all who have been working on the quilt. We will be asking for mor volunteers to sew at the next meeting. Thanks to all of you

Daphne McClure (660)424-0343
Denise Dodd (816) 898-3157

Keeping in touch

Until we are able to meet again, please keep in touch with each other and reach out to other members as much as you can!

NORTHLAND QUILTER'S GUILD
Minutes of General Meeting
March 11, 2021

President Barbara Laxson called the meeting to order and thanked everyone for coming. Donna Brattin made a motion to approve the minutes from the last meeting—JoAnne Borchelt seconded and it was approved.

Barbara called on the committee chairs for their report;

Activities Committee-Rhonda Thiedke reported that there will be a Highway 36 Quilt Shop Hop this year in April if anyone is interested in going.

Quilt Show—Trudy Coogan that plans are to go ahead with our Quilt Show in September, The set up will be September 15-16 and the show will be the 17,18 & 19. Some changes have been made—there will be no Judges and only 3 ribbons will be given. We are still in need of a Vendors Chair. By the Yard will not be a vendor this year but Little Red Hen will be. There will be no program book this year but a list instead. There will be no Tea Room. We will have the Silent Auction with funds raised going to the Veteran's Community Project—Tiny Houses. There will be no food served for set up. We will have the Bazaar with fabric, patterns, misc supplies, thread, rulers, stencils. We need a place big enough to store and prepare the items donated.

Mini Groups—Helen Tidics reported that the Wool group had not met the last 4 months but would be resuming meeting this month and they have room for 1 or 2 more members. None of the other mini groups are currently meeting.

The Opportunity quilt is finished and just needs the binding sewn on which is in the closet at the church.

KCRQF—JoAnne Borchelt reported that plans are moving forward using precautions for safety. Classes are now available and you can go to the website and register. We do still have a few spots available for quilts—to bigger than 93"x93" or smaller that 24"x24". There will be no 3 day passes sold at the door but you can get them through JoAnne. Dates for the show are June 17,18,19. Our guilds responsibility this year is for Door Prizes and our booth. You can go to Sign Up Genius to sign up for 2 hour time slots. The 3 day passes will be $30 and one day will be $10 or $12. There will be limited food available.

Retreat—Jane Bromberg reported that the date for our next retreat is February 2022.

Scrap quilt—Daphne and Denise reported that it is coming along and they are now working on the borders.

Show and Tell—For the present we will do pictures so if you have made a quilt in 2020 you can send a picture to JoAnne. At our May meeting in person those whose last name A to N can show one quilt and O to Z can show one quilt at the June meeting.

Social Media—the Facebook page has been updated. We have had a few reach out wanting to join. Our email account is NorthlandQuiltersGuild@gmail.com. Our website has been updated to show the Zoom meetings and Quilt Show updates.

Sunshine & Shadows—Paula Releford had knee replacement. Helen Sellers is not doing well as her lymphoma is back.

New Business—Global Quilt Connection will have a Sampler online class May 22-23. It will be 2 to 5 pm both days and each session will be 15 minutes. Guild will pay the fee and there will be an online poll to see how many are interested. If you know of someone that is not tech savvy but would like to attend you can do a Buddy system and invite them to your home.

We took a poll on how many members want to start meeting at the Oak Grove Park and when and it was 100% to start meeting in May at the Park and 70% voted to meet in the afternoon as the weather may still be cool in the mornings. The May meeting will be at the Park starting at noon. There will be no snacks provided but may bring a snack. There will be Picnic tables but may want to bring your own chair if concerned about social distancing.

It was announced that they are needing quilts at the Hospice House at NKC Hospital.

The meeting was adjourned and Jane Bromberg gave a very informative program on Tricks and Tips for Organization in our sewing rooms.

Programs

Liz Grandberg-Jerome will be presenting her "UFO, Orphans & More" program via Zoom.

Then in May we are tentatively going to have our basket sale - hopefully in the park. Further details to be announced.

Looking for some volunteers

The positions detailed below are open and need someone to fill them. If you are interested in participating in one of these positions please contact Barbara Laxson.

Programs—Second Chair: this individual will work with Jean to schedule speakers this year and will take over the Programs position in 2022.

Assistant to Silent Auction Coordinator: the assistant will help the Silent Auction Coordinator (Teddie Broughton) catalog and keep track of the items for auction during the Northland Quilt Fair and will take over the duties of coordinator in 2022.

HAVE YOU ZOOMED YET?

The Northland Quilters Guild held its first zoom meeting in February! Participating in a ZOOM meeting is pretty simple. All you need to do is download Zoom to your computer, tablet or phone from your app store. You will get an invite via email each month and you just click on the link to join the meeting. We will do this on our regular meeting day. The second Thursday of the month at 10:00 am. Our next zoom meeting will be on April 8th at 10 00 am and you should have received the zoom link by now. Don't forget to "mute" your microphone unless you are speaking.

Special Message from Pat Peterson

The Notable Men and Women of Missouri Exhibit of quilts will be the special exhibit for this years KC Regional Festival. They will be displaying between 36 to 40 of these quilts. These quilts are owned by both the day and night guilds. We need to get sleeves on all these quilts. I would like to get five or six ladies to take 6 - 8 and put sleeves on them. I can get them ready and get them to each lady, because I don't think I can do all 40. You could mention this at the quilt show meeting maybe as both guilds own the quilts. Also, after the Festival, I will not bring them back to my home. We need to give the quilts back to the original quilt maker or their families, or Joann Tobiason (original idea came from her) said she thought it would be good if they were given as an exhibit to the quilt museum in Hamilton. I heard Joann had passed away this later a long time after the fact so I have not been in contact with her family. If we decide to give them to the museum, we probably need to contact each quiltmaker to see if that is ok, some might want their quilts back.

If anyone has a question they can call me at 816 464 5402. Thanks, Pat Peterson

KCRQF

The Kansas City Regional Quilt Festival is just around the corner and it is full steam ahead. The Overland Park Convention center is currently holding events and all is going well. We will all be required to wear masks, aisles will be 13 feet apart with one way traffic and hand sanitizing stations will be available. Every possible precaution has been put in place. Our job at the show this year is door prizes. We will collect door prizes from the vendors and we will be responsible for giving them out. This coming week I will be sending out a new way for many of you to sign up to volunteer. It is called Sign Up Genius. If you are new to this, it is simple. Here are some instructions. Give it a try we may be using this in the future for other things.

- When you receive an invite to a sign up, you can sign up with or without creating an account. If you receive an emailed invitation to sign up, click the View Sign Up button in the email to access the sign up.

- For a standard sign up, click the Sign Up button next to the slot(s) you want to sign up for. Scroll to the bottom of the page and click the Submit & Sign Up button. If you do not have a computer or unable to use Sign Up Genius please contact me, JoAnn Borchelt and I will sign you up to work at the quilt show.

If you would like to have a quilt judged you will need to go to the KCRQF.com website and fill out your registration and pay your fee. You can sign up for classes via the website starting Jan. 15. Merchandise and show tickets are also being sold on the website and paid through the guild. Check it out!

I still need a few quilts for our guild to display. They can't be larger than 96" x 96" or smaller than 24" x 24". Must be finished between Jan. 2019 and now. I know during the past 10 months you have made many quilts that you could show. Please contact me and fill out the registration form and send to me at ruddiejo@yahoo.com or 816-645-5798. Deadline is March 31.

Also, if you are only purchasing show tickets don't do it on the website. They will charge you a $3 service fee. You will be able to purchase show tickets through the guild to avoid the service fee.

Thanks
JoAnn Borchelt
