August 2019

Donna's Dewdrops!

Wow! What a fun busy summer! The KCRQF in June was awesome and then the Highway 36 Quilt Shop Hop in July was so much fun—12 quilt shops in 2 days—Whew!!—and having our grandkids for a week is always fun!—now I'm wondering what August is going to bring—oh yes—a visit from our International Student from the Bahamas and a trip to Gulf Shores with my family to celebrate my birthday!! When am I going to have time to finish my quilts for our show in September!!??? Hoping you all are having a great summer too!!!

Donna Brattin

Hwy 36 Road Trip

Nine guild members were able to come on the Hwy 36 Road Trip. We were able to visit 10 of the 15 quilt shops on the trail and also got in two bonus shops! Our bags were filled with beautiful fabric by the end of the trip. Now we need some quality quilting time!

HOSPITALITY

You quilters were sizzling (and I'm not talking about the weather) with your treats, sweets and goodies in July. Thank you for your generosity. I appreciate the Birthday well wishes too. For next month: as this scorching tropical weather continues into August, remember that store bought treats/sweet are just as acceptable. We adore any goodies that come to our table. There's no reason to turn on those ovens, just spend your time sewing! Look forward to seeing you all next month. We continue to pray for more pleasant temperatures.

Leah Stanley and the Hospitality Team

Scrap Quilt

Our guild scrap quilt top is all together and will be shown at the August meeting. It just needs to be quilted and bound now. Thanks to all who helped with piecing blocks and providing scraps for the quilt.

SILENT AUCTION NEWS

THERE'S STILL TIME TO DONATE A HANDMADE ITEM TO THE SILENT AUCTION!!

If you have a donation for the Silent Auction and you would like to be included in the judging at the August 8th meeting, you need to get your donation to me by Monday, August 5th. You can deliver it to me, my address is 1924 Larkspur Dr., Liberty, MO. Please call me first to make sure I'm home before coming. My phone number is 816-838-3973.

If you still want to donate but do not want to participate in the judging, the deadline to receive donations for the quilt show is September 12th.

Guild members will vote for their favorite in each category and ribbons will be awarded in each category. Please be sure your name and "2019 Northland Needlers Quilt Show" is on the back of your donation when submitted.

If you don't have the time to make something for the Silent Auction, you can still participate by making a theme basket. The basket should have a value of at least $30 and it should contain an item that has been hand made, such as napkins, coasters, a table runner or whatever the hand made item would be based on the theme of your basket. Or, you can put in some Fat Quarters printed with a design that would go with your basket.

Please bring your theme basket to the August 8th or September 12th meeting.

The more donations we have the more funds can be raised for our charity Never Alone. Thank you for helping to make this year's Silent Auction a success.

Mona Meyers and Teddie Broughton

Thank you for a great month of donations last month! It is much appreciated. But....HELP! We are still behind on quilt cotton fabric donations from what we had last year—so far, we have prepared 18 cases of fabric. Last year we had over 100 cases. So, please – dig deep into your fabric pile and see what you can find for cotton quilt fabrics to donate to our Bazaar. We are also still looking for older sewing machines that you no longer use – tabletop models only – no cabinets. The sales of these sewing machines will help meet our targeted Bazaar sales goal.

We will continue to accept all quilt related donations right up to our quilt guild meeting, September 12th, which is a week before the show.

DONATIONS WANTED: Cotton quilting fabrics, books, patterns, quilting & sewing notions, quilting supplies, quilt kits, large pieces cotton scraps, hand-made items, batting, etc.

I'm also pleading for volunteer help! At about half of the scheduled workshops there was only me to process & price all the donations. Again, here's the schedule. I could really use any help you are willing to give. Come when you want and leave when you need to – you don't need to stay the whole time. It's very easy work & comfortable environment—plus you get a preview of what you may want to buy at our Bazaar! Any help will be greatly appreciated.

A Message from the Northland Needlers Quilt Show Co-Chairs

Thanks to everyone for the quilts you are willing to share at the Quilt Show. We are asking that you continue to quilt those beautiful quilts and think ahead to next year. We'll get the registration forms out earlier and hope we get lots of quilts completed that will be entered in the 2020 quilt show! Please don't ever feel that your quilt "isn't good enough". You can opt out of the judging but if you do have your quilt judged, please consider it a chance to get some positive feedback on ways we can improve our quilting. And in reality, I hope we love our quilts enough that we want to share them with other quilt lovers!

We will be receiving the quilts at the September guild meetings, starting 1 hour prior to the meeting time. Many of us still have work to do to finish our quilts but we can get it done! We are looking forward to the new venue at Hillside Christian Church and how we can utilize the space we have. Special thanks to Vicki Nagayama for getting the layout planned. Keep on signing up on the work slot poster and fill in all the open hours!

Please continue to "Like and Love" our Facebook site – Kelley tells us that every time we do that, it helps move our page to the "top of the list" when people are searching FB.

It takes us all to make this quilt show a success.

Thanks so much for your participation in the Northland Needlers Quilt Show!
