January 2023

Joann's Bits and Pieces

Happy New Year! This is the wonderful start of a new creative year. We have so many creative people in this guild, that I know we will see some outstanding items on display.

Unfortunately, at the start of this year we have many open positions. Please look over the open positions and see what fits your talents and abilities and help us out. Without everyone's assistance, we cannot be a guild.

If NKC schools close due to weather, we will not meet. See you at the meeting!

Joann Thomas

Hospitality

WOW! Oh Wow is all I can say about all my friends who brought dishes for the Christmas meal. We had to get a third table out to hold all your wonderful food and goodies that you provided for the Guild Christmas party.

If there's one thing about Quilters I know, we can count on each other. I knew I could count on you to come through for the most amazing feast Northland Quilting Guild has ever had. Thank you all....

So for January don't forget us in hospitality. Remember to bring your baked goods, your bought treats, and any sweets in between. Because we love them all.

I hope your Christmas was wonderful. I look forward to seeing you all in 2023.

Your retiring Hospitality Team

Leah, Vicki, Terri, & Ilene

Leah Stanley

Sew and Share

As you are thinking about New Year's goals, please have a goal of showing at least one quilt project at a quilt guild meeting this year. It is a great way to be active in and supportive of the group. Members want to get to appreciate your work. No project is too small or too basic.

And!

If your project is completed when it is shown, you'll be awarded a ribbon to display on your guild nametag.

While we're thinking of Sew and Share, we need to thank Joann Thomas for so skillfully leading Sew and Share portions of the meeting in past years. She leaves big shoes to fill, and we also thank her for moving into the role of Guild President.

Thia Crawford

Northland Needlers Quilt Show

Excess funds from the quilt SHOW in the amount of $683.43 were deposited into the Northland Quilters GUILD account, as the Nitetime Guild voted to take the excess funds. Please refer to guild bylaws for further explanation.

Retreat

Reminder:: Retreat money is due at our January meeting. If you have any questions please call Kathy Taylor.

Thank you & Happy New Year! Thank you!
