

NEEDLES AND THREAD

January 2022

Barb's Bits and Pieces

The hustle and bustle of the holidays will soon be over and then it's time to concentrate on the New Year. Any resolutions yet? My resolution this year is to complete projects started this past year, as well as some from previous years. Anyone else with a similar resolution?

Hope everyone had a wonderful holiday and had a chance to get together with family and make some new memories!

Barbara

Sew and Share

Is now open to all members. Let's see those beautiful works of art!

Hospitality

By general consent it seems our Christmas luncheon was a success. In January hospitality will begin serving tea and coffee. Hopefully this a sign that things are moving towards normalcy.

We of the Hospitality Team wish all of you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!! See you in 2022...

HAPPY NEW YEAR EVERYONE!

Once again it is time to renew or enter a new subscription for Fons & Porter's Love of Quilting magazine. As a guild member, we are being offered the opportunity to do so for a cost of $15.00 for one year. I will be collecting your funds and subscription information to send in on behalf of the guild. If you are interested in participating, please see me at the January or February meeting. I can accept cash, or a check made payable to Northland Quilters Guild to enter your request.

If you have any questions, please feel free to give me a call at home 816-734-8692 or on my cell phone 816-582-1820. See you at the guild meeting!

Ellen Fox

The church is asking that all guests continue to wear a mask while visiting the property.

Presidents and 2nd Vice President from each guild will meet after both guilds have voted to tally the votes. The paper ballot contained three options:

Continue with annual shows if there are enough volunteers.

Hold the show every other year to alternate with the KCRQF if there are sufficient volunteers.

Discontinue the quilt show.

QUILTED BLESSINGS

Here is a note that we received from Northcare Hospice: " Dear Northland Quilters Guild, Thank you for the 9 beautiful quilts you made and donated in early November. I apologize for my tardiness! Now that fall is changing to winter those quilts make North Care Hospice House patients feel cozier than ever. So much time, care, and lovely fabric go into those quilts, and we so appreciate your generosity. Happy Holidays to all of you, and may 2022 bring you all good things. Sincerely, Lane"

Thanks to everyone that contributed to Quilted Blessings in the last year. We delivered a total of 140 quilts to Northcare Hospice and Baby Grace in 2021. Continue to make your finished baby, lap and twin sized quilts and I will get them delivered. You may bring them to guild or if you call me, I will pick them up. Have a great New Year!
