May 2023

Joann's Bits and Pieces

May! The lovely month of flowers. Hope we see many lovely, flowery spring time quilts this month. Don't forget that Saturday and Sunday - May 6 & 7 - is the Global Quilt connection from 2 - 5 pm both days. You can pop in and out and view what you like the most. They usually have it on line for 24 hours after the classes also. Hope to see you all on May 11th.

Joann Thomas

Scrap Quilt

The scrap quilt is an opportunity to all members to contribute fabric or time for its construction and only members may buy tickets for an opportunity to win the quilt.

Please bring fabric to the May meeting in a pink color wave. The French braid pattern uses a gradual gradation from dark to light. Width-of-fabric strips or fat quarters are great.

Please call me if you are available to help in the construction—816 651 1257; leave a message if I do not answer. We have three volunteers and myself at this time ready to begin.

Jan Kramme

- ♦ Patriot Quilts - is led by Joann Thomas meets at the Sewing Bee on the 4th Thursdays. I have patterns and will bring them. If anyone wants to do a Quilt of Valor, the patterns I have will work for that. When they are completed, we can contact the correct venue for the donation.
- ♦ Stitch Chix is led by Helen Tidics. Our meetings continue to be the 1st Thursday of

TOILETRIES

Upon making my recent delivery to Synergy, I was told they no longer are accepting direct donations. They requested delivery to the Parkville Hillcrest location where distribution to Parkville students will be made. This is not a convenient location for me. At my church, they recently chartered "Adventure Crew" of the Boy Scouts; began a program that will accept toiletries for distribution to students in need from Oak Park, Staley and Parkville students.

The bottom line is I am willing to take toiletries to this location but if you prefer taking them to Parkville Hillcrest that is available to you.

Silent Auction

It's that time of year to be sharing your talent with a Silent Auction item for the Quilt show.

Items that do best are the Wool, Table Tops, Wall Hangings, Table Runners, Small Baby Blankets and 3D's. Things in Holiday and Sports fabrics seem to do very good. Vicki and Leah will be accepting donations at the Guild meetings until the Quilt Show.

This year it was the Night Times Guild's turn to select the charity. The charity they chose is called: Transitions Family Visitation Center serving Clay county. This charity helps families with protection orders from each other, allowing the children to see the other parent. As well as the non-custodial parent to see their children in supervised settings. There are many reason for this to occur, such as, substance abuse, domestic violence, and or allegations of sexual abuse. This is a court ordered program and cost $20-$50 per person per occurrence.

Looking forward to gathering all your talented quilting items for the Quilt Show.

UFO Challenge

As of April 13, we have 20 people who are cleaning up their sewing space by finishing their UFO's.

Remember to bring in your UFO's and get your tickets. As so much is going on at each meeting, it would be helpful if you brought your UFO's to either Mary or I BEFORE the meeting. Then we have more time to see that you get the appropriate number of tickets and that they are filled out and returned. We do not keep track of the tickets; only the UFO's on your sheet so please remember to turn the tickets in. Remember you can get up to 3 tickets for a twin size or larger quilt as these are big projects. This is incentive for finishing those UFO's!

MAY TABLE RUNNER/TOPPER CHALLENGE – Bring to May 11th meeting. 7 people completed April's challenge!

May's Challenge Reminder – 3 block minimum

Theme – Flowers

Colors in block – black & white

Block to include – Friendship star
