

NEEDLES AND THREAD

October 2022

Barb's Bits and Pieces

Our quilt show was fantastic! Our members really came through with such beautiful and creative quilts. And lots of members were there volunteering their help to make this show a success. Volunteers make the guild too! Your participation provides the future for our guild. We have open positions waiting for you! Please give consideration when called about a board position or other committee or give me a call if you have questions. You can do this!

Members,

We have only had one or two participating by zoom in our guild meetings. I feel zooming has taken my focus away from leading our meetings. So, effective immediately, I am discontinuing zooming our meetings. Should circumstances change, we will re-evaluate this decision. Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Northland Needlers Quilt Show

Pam Peugh - nighttime Silent Auction Co-Chair, and Marcie Henkel, vendor chairman, delivered $1781 to Rose Brooks.

We all want to thank everyone who purchased our Silent Auction items. Rose Brooks was very pleased.

Joann Thomas - Daytime Co-chair

Silent Auction

Wow! We are overwhelmed by the generosity of our and the night guild with donations this year. We had such beautiful items for sale! We raised $1781 dollars for the Rose Brooks Center! Thank you to everyone who donated an item as well as their time at the show to make this fundraiser a success!

Marianne Cohen

Sew and Share

Is now open to all members. Let's see those beautiful works of art!

Hospitality

Thank you quilter friends for your continual support of hospitality. We appreciate you bringing all your baked goods, treats sweets. Next month is October. I'm sure you all can stir up some ghostly and gobbling treats, sweets & baked goods. I can't wait to fly round the table and see your wonderful dessert creations "Boo" for now.

Your Hospitality Team

Leah, Vicki, Terri, & Ilene

Bazaar

We want to thank all who volunteered; loading and unloading, setup and cleanup, and those that worked the sale. We couldn't have done it without you! A special thank you to Trudy Coogan; she graciously allowed us to use her home for 6 months, to sort, price, and store all the donations. And thank you to Roberta Waterfield who was there every week to help us with sorting and pricing!

The Bazaar was a huge success due to all of you. All unsold items from the Bazaar were donated to Scraps KC, The Sewing Labs, and Hillcrest.

Karen Allen

NORTHLAND QUILTER'S GUILD

September 8, 2022
Minutes of General Meeting
Page Two

Programs, Donna Brattin: Today's program is a surprise and will be interactive. Our October program will be presented by Crystal Manning. November we will be having School House demonstrations by our members. We still need two more volunteers to give a 15-minute demonstration. For the December meeting, members voted as to if they would like to participate in a voluntary gift exchange or a Secret Sister exchange over the next year. Interest level in these seemed low. A food donation drive at the December meeting was suggested. There were a few suggestions as to where the food would be donated. Following discussion and a show of hands, members approved the food going to the food pantry of the church where we meet.

Publicity, Mary Rohrbeck: No report.

Quilted Blessings, Teddie Broughton: Last month 23 donated quilts were delivered to Baby Grace and NKC Hospice. She read a thank you note received from Baby Grace.

Quilt Show, Guild, Joann Thomas: There was good response for volunteers to help with the quilt show. There are still areas where members can help. Volunteers are really needed for tear down after the show closes. Signup sheets are at the table in the back.

Trudy Coogan has 80 boxes for the bazaar in her basement and needs volunteers to carry these out.

Discounted two-day tickets for guild members were on sale.

Quilt Show Bazaar, Karen Allen & Trudy Coogan: Trudy stated that they received a lot of very nice items this year.

Quilt Show Miniatures/Silent Auction, Marianne Cohen: Fifty items were donated and are on display today. Members were asked to vote for their favorite. Votes were counted after the business meeting and the winners were announced: 1st place Helen Tidics; 2nd place Robin Musgrave; 3rd Place Teddie Broughton. Proceeds from this fund raiser will be donated to Rose Brooks Home, a domestic violence emergency shelter.

Retreat, Kathy Taylor: Currently, 20 have signed up for the retreat at the Masonic Lodge on Barry Road across from Joann Fabric on February 27, 28, March 1. A sheet was passed around for members to sign if they are interested.

Scrap Quilt, Jan Kramme: The quilt is almost ready to send to the quilter.

Sewing Bee & Challenge Committee, Roberta Waterfield: This month's meeting is September 22nd. She showed this month's project, a table runner "Cottage Garden." If interested, pick up the material list from her today. Let Roberta know if you have a sewing machine that you would like to bring and have cleaned.

She requested that a sympathy card be sent from our guild. It was announced that Barb Moyer had knee replacement surgery.

Website, Shirley Green: Nothing to report.

Membership, Mary Cason:    2 Visitors
  72 Members in attendance
  1 Zoom attendee
  2 Joined today
  102 Total Membership (not including the 2 that joined today)

Sew and Share, Joann Thomas: 10+ members showed their completed projects.

Announcement: Sandy Farrimond announced that The Sewing Labs will accept all types of fabric donations. They teach individuals how to sew so they may sew for employment. They can be located on the internet.

Mini Groups

Please contact the following individuals if you have an interest in one of our Mini Groups!

- ◆ Wool Group led by Helen Tidics meets the third Thursday at 9:30 AM at Helen's home.
- ◆ Patriot Quilts led by Joann Thomas meets at the Sewing Bee on the 4th Thursdays. I have patterns and will bring them. Unless there are a lot of ladies who wish to do a joint quilt, we will usually be working individually. Our quilts should be twin or lap size and will go to the North Kansas City Hospice. If anyone wants to do a Quilt of Valor, the patterns I have will work for that. When they are completed, we can contact the correct venue for the donation.
- ◆ St CHIX is led by Helen Tidics and meets the first Thursday of each month at Helen's home at 9:30. We have our annual October retreat at Heartland.
- ◆ UFO CHALLENGE is led by Kathy Taylor and Diane Lasco: To participate in the challenge members need to complete the form listing your UFOs and bring five fat quarters. Participants receive tickets for the drawing at the December meeting. The winners of the drawing will receive fat quarter bundles based on the number of people who join. Please join us in finishing projects! Year-to-date projects finished: 32!

Scrap Quilt

The scrap quilt piecing is finished and the backing needs piecing. It looks great! The team was exceptional.

QUILTED BLESSINGS

I have donated 10 of your quilts to NKC Hospice House this month. I have several baby quilts to donate to Baby Grace in the next few weeks. Your donations are appreciated very much.

We received a thank you note from Hospice. It reads, "Dear Northland Quilters Guild, Thank you so much for the beautiful quilts your group made for our patients. They are so beautiful and so very appreciated. Thank you all so much! All the best, Jessica and the Northcare team." Keep making those beautiful quilts that are baby sized up to twin sized and I will pick them up at Guild or I can come to your home. Thank you so much for your generosity.

Kansas City Regional Quilt Festival 2023

I hope all of you have been checking the KCRQF website to see all the updates about the Festival taking place on June 15th, 16th, and 17th, 2023 at the Overland Park Convention Center, Overland Park, Kansas. Keep checking the website, www.kcrqf.com, for all the information and updates.

Here is an update you might be interested in: under the "Class Info" tab, all of the instructors will be listed. When you click on an instructor, their biography will come up and you can learn all about them. Some are already on the website. Check it out! All of the instructors should be there by January 1st.

Also, be sure to check out our Sponsors and thank them if you happen to visit their booth.

Mark your calendars for January 1, 2023 when classes will be posted to the website. You will be able to register for those classes beginning January 15, 2023 at 12:01AM. Registration will close June 9, 2023. There is no early registration for guilds.

Tickets will be bought online this year. You will be able to purchase your ticket(s), buy merchandise and register for any classes all at the same time. You will then print your ticket which will have a Bar Code at the bottom. The Bar Code gets you in to the Festival. Ticket prices are $15/, $30/3days or $17 at the door. There will be a separate $12 Saturday Only ticket available which must be purchased ahead of time. Tickets for children 4-12 years of age are $10. Children 3 and under are free.

Sandy Gard, this year's quilt judge, will give a tour of the judged quilts to the first 50 people. The ticket price for this tour is $10. It will be on Thursday, June 15th starting at 8:00AM. Sandy will talk about how and what she looks for when judging a quilt. The tour will last about an hour.

Another important date is March 1st. This will be the time to begin registering our guild's quilts that will be on display, not judged, during the Festival. PLEASE consider having your quilt displayed at the Festival. I saw a lot of beautiful quilts at our quilt show. At this time, I don't know how much booth space we will have, but regardless, it would be greatly appreciated to have several quilts for our booths. The guidelines for a quilt is on the KCRQF website under the Home Tab – About Us – 2023 Guild Quilt Entries. The deadline for registration is March 31st.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at monameyers@yahoo.com.
