October 2021

Barb's Bits and Pieces

The quilt show is over for this year, but all the creativity displayed by members will stay with me! I so enjoyed looking at everyone's works of art. Each told a story, whether the creator was fairly new to quilting or very experienced. Don't know about you, but as I look at some of my older quilts, I do see my progress in this craft. Experienced or not, I hope we will have even more members displaying their quilts next year. Thank you to all who participated!

Barbara

Sew and Share

This month Sew and Share will be open to members with their last name beginning with the letters A—L. Please only bring ONE item to share!

Thank you for your understanding!

Hospitality

We are not providing any refreshment service at this point. Please bring with you any snacks or drinks you may need.

Since the church is located in Kansas City, masks are required at guild meetings and for Sew-Bee.

NORTHLAND QUILTER'S GUILD

Minutes of General Meeting

September 9, 2021

The meeting was called to order by president Barbara Laxson.

Minutes/Treasurer's Report: The Treasurer's report printed in the last newsletter was approved by the members. The minutes from the last meeting as printed in the August newsletter was approved by members.

Old Business: Donna Brattin announced that the Notable Men & Women of Missouri \(an exhibit of 67 quilts put together by the Northland Quilters Day and Night guilds\) is currently on display in Platte County Missouri through October 25. We need to decide what to do with the quilts following this exhibit. The Hamilton Missouri Quilt Museum has been suggested. Truman Museum was also suggested. More detailed information will be collected and presented at our October meeting for a vote.

New Business: Barbara announced that we need an Assistant to the Silent Auction Coordinator for the next quilt show and a Newsletter Editor to replace Rhonda who will be moving. If interested, contact Barbara Laxson.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

1 Programs: Jean Hummel – Today's program "Think Small for the Wall" was presented by Liz Granburg-Jerome

2. Publicity: Mary Rohrbeck – no report.

3. Historian: Jo Forsythe – No report.

4. Hospitality: Leah Stanley, Terri Schroder, Vicki Stanley – No report due to no food/drinks for meetings.

5. Library: Karen Allen – The library was open but had not received anything new.

6. Memory Makers: Beth Curasi – There are two quilts to be basted at Sew Bee on September 23. One of the quilts is very large. Please come and Help. It is always fun.

7. Newsletter: Rhonda Thiedke – The newsletters that are sent by mail were late this month.

8. Quilted Blessings: Teddie Broughton - Thank you notes from Baby Grace and Northland Hospice were read. Members were shown a container of fabric that had been donated specifically for charity quilts and members were invited to take fabric that they would use for a charity quilt.

9. Retreat: Jane Bromberg & Teddie Broughton – Nothing to report.

10. Scrap Quilt: – Daphane McClure & Denise Dodd – The scrap quilt is completed and will be on display at our quilt show.

11. Guild Quilt Show: Trudy Coogan – Our quilt show will be September 17 and 18. Two-day tickets are on sale today and at the door. $7 for two days or $5 for 1 day. Wednesday evening, they will be moving everything to the show site and Thursday will be set-up. Help can always be used for set-up and there are still volunteer openings on show days, especially Saturday.

12. Miniatures/Silent Auction: Teddie Broughton – This year's Silent auction donations for our quilt show were on display and members voted on their favorite. The winners were:

- 1st place: Pat Peterson
- 2nd place: JoAnn Borchelt
- 3rd place: Mary Cason

13. Opportunity Quilt: JoAnn Borchelt – Nothing reported. It was on display.

14. Quilt Show Bazaar: Karen Allen – They have received a lot of very nice item. It has not been determined if/when they will mark down items. Everything is priced very well so buy early.

15. KC Regional Quilt festival: JoAnn Borchelt & Jean Hummel – Jean reported that our guild received a check for $7000 from the Kansas City Regional Quilt Festival for our guild participation this year. Our guild will need to submit a letter of intent to participate in 2023 by September 18 if we plan to participate in the 2023 festival. With our letter of intent, we can request the job of door prizes again. JoAnn Borchelt recommended that we request the same job as it was relatively easy and we now have experience with that. Terri Schroder made the motion that we participate in 2023 and the we request to handle the door prizes. The motion was seconded by Donna Brattin and the motion was voted on and approved by the members.

16 Sunshine & Shadows: Shirley Justus – Shirley asked about the status of a previous recommendation that a memory plaque be displayed at each quilt show in remembrance of guild members who has passed away since the last show. She was told that the Guilt Show officers had approved one to be displayed at our September show. Shirley read a thank you received from North Kansas City Hospice for a memorial gift received from the guild. The thank you letter was given to the Historian for filing.

17 Sewing Bee & Challenge Committee: Roberta Waterfield – Sew Bee will meet the fourth Thursday, September 23rd and then October will be the last meeting for this year. A stained-glass quilt is the new project. Members may also come and work on their own projects. Sewing machines may be cleaned. The price is $50 per machine. Roberta has the book if you want to sign up. The lady who does this needs a minimum of two machines for her to come.

18 Mini Groups:

Wool, Helen Tidics – will meet a week late this month due to the show.

Panels, Donna Brattin – Meets first Tuesday of the month at 1:00 at Donna's home.

Crazy Quilts, Mary Rohrbeck – Contact Mary if interested.

Quilts of Valor, Rhonda Thiedke – Each participant is asked to complete one quilt to be donated to a service person.

Stitch Chix, Helen Tidics – The groups is currently full.

19 Membership: Mary Cason – We have 125 members. Today we had 1 visitor and 1 new member. 47 attended the meeting live and 2 via zoom.

20 Website: Shirley Green – No report

Sew and Share: Nine members showed quilts.

Announcement: It was announced that there will be a Sewing Lab Sale September 11, 9:00 to 2:00 at the Don Bosco Center.

The meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully Submitted,

Rita Fenn, Secretary

Mini Groups

Please contact the following individuals if you have an interest in one of our Mini Groups!

- ◆ Wool Group led by Helen Tidics meets the third Thursday at 9:30 AM at Helen's home.
- ◆ Panel Group led by Donna Brattin meets the first Tuesday of every month at her home at 1:00 PM.
- ◆ The Crazy Quilt Mini Group meeting will be on the first Thursday of each month at 1 PM led by Mary Rohrbeck. Meetings will be at the North Kansas City library, 2251 Howell Street, just east of the NKC High School in the Sewing Lab (lower level of library). Embroidery knowledge is helpful but not necessary.
- ◆ St CHIX is led by Helen Tidics and meets the first Thursday of each month at Helen's home. This group is full at this time.
- ◆ The Quilt of Valor group is led by Rhonda Thiedke and meets right after the monthly guild meeting at the church as needed.

QUILTED BLESSINGS

During the month of September, I have delivered 22 of your quilts to both North Care Hospice and Baby Grace. They are so appreciative and thankful for your donations. I will continue to collect your completed baby and twin size quilts for these worthwhile organizations. Thank you for your generosity.

Looking for A Volunteer

If you are interested in participating in either position please contact Barbara Laxson.

Newsletter Editor: Rhonda will be moving out of state next year so we will need to replace her. You will need a computer and have some experience with Microsoft products.

KCRQF

We closed out the 2021 Kansas City Regional Quilt Festival. We all declared it a success. The proceeds were divided up and we received a check for $7000.00. Our guild voted to participate in the 2023 KCRQF. Our letter of intent has been sent to the board. We requested the same job "door prizes". If you are interested in being our guilds representative for the 2023 KCRQF please contact Barbara.

BAZZAR

We had such a nice variety of items, thanks so much to all of you for your donations. Thanks to everyone who sorted, priced and helped with set-up and clean up. Also to those that worked the 2 days of the sale.

A special thank you to Trudy Coogan for opening her home to us each week to sort and price items and also for all of her input and help in getting things organized.

And also thank you to Margaret Reichart, Mary Ann Robker and Roberta Waterfield for being there every week. Preparing for the bazaar was a group effort and it wouldn't have been possible without these wonderful ladies.

A Message from the 2022 NNQS Co-Chair

I hope you all had a great time at this year's quilt show. If we want the quilt show to be around next year, start thinking of what positions you could help fill. We will need an asst quilt show chairperson, a Bazaar chairperson, set up people, take down people, quilt registrar, and quilt release chairperson. Thanks to Marianne Cohen who has graciously accepted the position of Silent auction chairperson. Many hands make light work. And start thinking of the next gorgeous quilt you will be entering.

JoAnn Thomas

The Missouri Quilt Museum

The Missouri Quilt Museum is pleased to announce that the Bob Ross Cherrywood Challenge 2020 is now on display at the Missouri Quilt Museum, located in Hamilton, Missouri.

Each year Cherrywood Fabrics of Brainerd, Minnesota, conducts a challenge contest. Quilters receive a packet of fabric of the same colors and sizes. Quilters must then create a 20 x 20 inch quilt block that they feel reflects the subject's image or works. The subject of the 2020 challenge was the artist Bob Ross.

The exhibit will be on display at the museum throughout the month of September.

The Missouri Quilt Museum is located at 300 E Bird Street in Hamilton, Missouri. Museum hours are Tuesday thru Friday 11:00 AM to 5:00 PM and on Saturdays from 10:00 AM to 2:00 PM.

Quilt guilds are invited to schedule a group tour. Group tours can be scheduled outside of normal museum hours.

To schedule a tour or for more information, contact:

Silent Auction

I want to thank everyone that contributed to the Silent Auction by making items, working the show and buying items. We (day and night guild together) sold 52 items for a total of $1281.00 for the Veterans Community Project! I called the program manager today and she was thrilled. Marci Hankel and I will be delivering the money soon. Way to go members!

Northland Quilt Guild Website

Our guild's website is northlandquiltersguild.com and has been designed primarily to provide information to those looking for a quilt guild to visit or join. One of the pages that would be of interest to current guild members is the Links page. It includes quilt-related services offered by members of our guild. If you have a business that you would like included on that page, please contact me.

Northland Needlers Quilt Show

Thank you for your help in making a great quilt show this year. My thanks to the many volunteers in preparation for setting up the show. My thanks to the many shoppers. I hope you enjoyed the quilt display, the vendors, the special exhibit and the bazaar. I want to thank Gwen Weakley for sharing her experience, skill and tact in making the 2020-2021 Northland Needlers Quilt Show (NNQS) a success. I would also like to say thank you to the families that donated their loved ones fabric stashes to the show. Thanks to Karen Allen and Margaret Reichart Bazaar co-chairs for managing bazaar donations. Special acknowledgement to Roberta Waterfield and Mary Ann Robker for their time and effort as well.

It is time to think about volunteering for the 2022 NNQS. Quilt show preparation was really a lot of fun (and some work). Please contact Joann Thomas to share your skills and join in the fun.
