NORTHLAND QUILTER'S GUILD
Minutes of General Meeting
September 12, 2019

The meeting was called to order by Donna Brattin, President. She welcomed members and asked if there were any visitors. There were four visitors today and we had two individuals join today.

Membership: There were 92 members present.

Minutes/Treasurer's Report: The Treasurer's report was approved as written. In the August meeting minutes number 3 under New Business in the minutes required an amendment. Reference to the First Vice President should be changed to Second Vice President. This change was amended by membership vote.

Old Business: - 1. Rhonda Thiedke and Leah Stanley have agreed to work on our new Activities Committee. 2. Last month it was announced that the guild would like to begin having periodic presentations by members on topics of interest. A list was passed around for members to indicate topics of interest and those willing to present. If you did not have the opportunity to sign the list, get with Donna. 3. We are still in need to fill the Assistant to the Second Vice President. This position will be the co-chair of our quilt show in two years and will "shadow" next year to learn. Contact one of the nominating committee members if you are interested. 4. We are still in need of a Quilt Show Treasurer for next year.

New Business: n/a

Library: Trudy Coogan - The newest Missouri Star Block Magazine has been received. This is the Christmas edition.

Newsletter: Rhonda Thiedke – Some of the emails are being dropped by the computer. If you are not getting emails, please bring Rhonda your email address. A request was made that the lettering on address labels be enlarged.

Memory Makers: Dolores Swenson – There will be no quilts to baste this month.

Opportunity Quilt: Ilene Ankenman – Members were reminded that each member is expected to purchase tickets for this project. A drawing for this quilt is held at the end of our quilt show.

Quilted Blessings: Teddie Broughton – Teddie thanked those who have contributed. These quilts are normally donated to NKC Hospice or Baby Grace. However, last week one was given to Quilts of Valor since it was a patriotic themed quilt. Judy Sovereign has volunteered to quilt some of our donation quilts.

NORTHLAND QUILTER'S GUILD

Minutes of September 12th General Meeting, Page 2

Quilt Show: Trish Rogers – The volunteer sign-up sheets for our quilt show are in the back of the room. Two-day quilt tickets for the show are not available today so they will need to be purchased at the door.

Miniatures/Silent Auction: Mona Meyers and Teddie Broughton – Mona showed a basket that was brought today for the Silent Auction.

Bazaar: Celeste Wegner – Volunteers are still needed for Saturday afternoon. Celeste showed previews of some items that will be at the bazaar. Fat quarters and long quarters will sell for $.75 this year.

Regional Quilt Festival: Roberta Waterfield & Trudy Coogan – 5900 tickets to the show were sold. The sale of our Opportunity Quilt tickets totaled $363. Our guild received $1,306.45 for our participation in the show. Roberta and Trudy have decided not to be our guild representative for the 2021 show. Two new volunteers will be needed if our guild is to participate in the next show and they need to be identified very soon. Discussion followed as to whether our guild should participate in the next regional quilt show. Participation requires guild representatives to attend monthly meetings in Johnson County, members to volunteer for helping at show and displaying about 15 quilts at the show. Members will vote at the October meeting on whether our guild continues to participate.

Sunshine & Shadows: Shirley Justus – Shirley welcomed Nancy Bellis back and mentioned the recent death of Helen Tidics husband.

Sewing Bee & Challenge Committee: Roberta Waterfield – The monthly Sewing Bee will meet this month at usual—Fourth Thursday, 9:00 – 3:00 in this room. This is a good time to work on projects and to get to know members. Roberta has two packets available for next year's special exhibit challenge.

Mini Groups: Wool, Helen Tidics; Table Runners, Roberta Waterfield; Panels, Donna Brattin; Crazy Quilts, Mary Rohrbeck
Wool Group – will meet Monday of next week which is a change this month due to the quilt show. 9:30 a.m. is the start time for this group.

Table Runners – The next meeting will be Tuesday of next week at 1:00-3:00. This will be the last meeting.

English Paper Piecing will begin next year on the 3rd Tuesdays, 1:00-3:00. This replaced Table Runners and will be led by Roberta.

Panels – Next year Donna wants all group participants to design something from the same panel fabric for a group display at next year's quilt show. This group meets the first Tuesday at 1:00.

Crazy Quilts – Mary hopes to start this group next month, location and time to be determined.

Sew and Share: Eighteen members showed finished quilt projects.

The meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully Submitted,

Rita Fenn, Secretary

QUILTED BLESSINGS

I will be delivering several quilts this week. Thank you for all the nice work that you do. Starting with the next Guild meeting please bring your unfinished quilts to the meeting and pick out a backing for it from the fabric that we have on hand. It is kept in the room where we store our supplies. If you have a backing for it that is great--bring it with the top. We have several guild members that are willing to quilt them. Be sure to give them to me so I can coordinate them. I will also gladly accept finished quilts from baby, lap or twin sized. If you want to make a charity quilt for our guild please feel free to take fabric from the back room. Thank you for all the generous work that you do it is very appreciated by the charities.

Teddie Broughton

Everyone is welcome to join us and work on your own project or join us in making the one I am teaching. See you there.

Wow - Another great Bazaar sale this year! The excitement of finding a “good deal” was so palpable in the air. For those of you who weren't there at opening time on Friday at 9:00 A.M. we had a packed room of over 30 people shopping. It was so satisfying to see so many happy faces finding the best deal or the perfect piece of fabric. Everything sold very well - patterns, fabrics, kits, sewing machines, scrap bags, panels, books, & quilting supplies. All the big items sold, so at the end of the show we had quite a compact pile of leftovers which was donated to the Sewing Lab. We have met and exceeded our budgeted sales goal for the 2019 Bazaar.

I cannot take credit for all of this as a whole troop of volunteers at our workshops & the Bazaar made it a resounding success. So, many many thanks to everyone. There are too many names to list here as it entails more than half of the membership roster. We couldn't have done it without your enthusiasm and willingness to help.

Lastly, let me put a plug in for someone to volunteer to be the daytime chairman for the Bazaar next year. The Quilt Show Committee is already putting together the volunteer lineup for the various jobs for next year's show and if you are interested, let Barb Moyer know. She is our daytime co-chairman for the 2020 Quilt Show. I will be willing to mentor and offer advice for that new Bazaar co-chair.
